ENDURO RULES

Only cars that complete 80% (80 laps) or more of the first 100 laps will have a starting position in the final 100 laps. The lineup for the first 100 laps will be by draw (your car number will be the number drawn); the lineup for the final 100 laps will be the finish order of the first 100 laps.

Drivers and riders must have a valid driver's license to race in this event. All drivers must turn in driver's license to receive a scoring transponder. The driver's license will be returned when the transponder is returned to the pay window. Transponders will be used for scoring.

You must cut a hole in the floor on the passenger side located near but not under the seat with clear view of the ground. Width of hole 4" side to side; length of hole 4" front to rear (square or round). Transponder will be mounted by a track official.

Entry Fee of $100.00 per car (includes transponder) - Entries submitted by June 28 are just $50. Drivers and riders must also purchase pit passes. All riders must come with their driver to the registration table to sign release and pay $10 rider fee.
